1. Policy Statement

This policy describes when an authorization is/is not required for the use and disclosure of individually identifiable health information. This policy applies to health information that is generated during the provision of health care to patients in patient care units, patient care centers or faculty practices (collectively referred to herein as the Rutgers Covered Entity) as well as Human Subjects research.

2. Reason for Policy

To establish the requirement that the Rutgers Covered Entity uses and disclosures of individually identifiable health information should be in conformance with state and federal regulations. This policy clarifies when an authorization is/is not required and/or clarifies when an opportunity to agree or disagree must be provided regarding the use and disclosure of health information. It establishes the necessary elements that must be included in these authorizations.

This policy applies to health information, including demographic information collected from an individual, whether oral or recorded in any form or medium, only when it meets the following conditions:

- I. It is created or received by any Rutgers Covered Component acting in the capacity of a health care provider, health plan, or health care clearinghouse;
- II. It relates to a past, present or future physical or mental health condition of an individual; the provision of healthcare to an individual; or payment for the provision of health care; and
- III. It can identify the patient, or there is a reasonable basis to believe that it can be used to identify an individual. Health information is considered not individually identifiable under the following two conditions:
 - A. Where the risk is very small that the information could be used to identify the individual. Risk is determined by using generally accepted and documented statistical and scientific principles and methods; and

- B. Where all identifying information is removed. See EXHIBIT A for a list of 18 identifiers that must be removed regarding the individual, relatives, employer and other household members to de-identify health information.

The Privacy Rule and this policy excludes from the definition of PHI individually identifiable health information that is maintained in education records covered by the Family Educational Right and Privacy Act (as amended, 20 U.S.C. 1232g) and records described at 20 U.S.C. 1232g (a) (4) (B) (iv), and employment records containing individually identifiable health information that are held by a covered entity in its role as an employer. See Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, <http://compliance.rutgers.edu/ferpa>

- A. Rutgers Covered Entity Workforce may use and disclose PHI necessary for treating patients, obtaining payment for items and services, and conducting administrative and operational tasks as necessary to provide health care services as defined in EXHIBIT C.
- B. Members outside of the Workforce (Business Associates) who provide certain functions, activities, or services on behalf of the Rutgers Covered Entity involving uses and disclosures of PHI and in order to help the Rutgers Covered Entity carry out its health care functions, other than for treatment purposes, must enter into a Business Associate Agreement with the Rutgers Covered Entity prior to accessing Rutgers PHI. The Executive Director, Procurement Services, shall be responsible for communicating and enforcing this section to vendors, independent contractors, Business Associates, etc.
- C. Patients may request restrictions on the uses or disclosures of their health information for TPO. Rutgers Covered Components need not agree to the restriction requested, but will be bound by any restriction to which it agrees. Any agreement to restrict must be appropriately documented on the Request for Restriction Form, which can be accessed at the following website: http://erm.rutgers.edu/departments/privacy_forms.html, and kept in the medical record. Such restrictions must be clearly indicated on the face of the chart or somewhere obvious to anyone accessing the chart.

V. The following types of TPO activities may require a valid authorization:

- A. Marketing activities require an authorization by the patient prior to use and disclosure of patient PHI by the Rutgers Covered Entity.
 1. Marketing includes any communication where the effect of the communication is to encourage recipients to purchase or use the product or service.
 2. Marketing does not constitute communications in the course of managing the treatment of the individual for purposes of "case management" and "care coordination."
 3. Authorizations for marketing along with the core elements discussed below must include the statement that the marketing is expected to result in direct or indirect remuneration to RHBS Covered Entities from the third party, if true.

Exception: Face to face communications made by any component of the Rutgers Covered Entity to the individual does not require an authorization.

- B. For Fundraising activities only the following PHI may be disclosed without authorization to an institutionally-related foundation for the purposes of raising funds for the Rutgers Covered Entity's own benefit. If the foundation is related to a non-Rutgers Covered Entity, a business approved limited data set agreement must be in place):
 1. Demographic information
 2. Dates of service.
 3. Department of service
 4. Treating physician

5. Outcome information
6. Health insurance status

All Components of the Rutgers Covered Entity must include in any fundraising materials a description of how the individual may opt out of receiving future communications; and the Rutgers Covered Components must make sure those individuals who opt out do not receive any future communications.

- C. The Rutgers Covered Entity may not sell PHI without an authorization. Such authorization must state that the disclosure will result in remuneration to the Rutgers Covered Entity or any Covered Component within the Entity. A sale is a disclosure of PHI by the Rutgers Covered Entity or its Business Associate whereby the Entity or its BA directly or indirectly receives remuneration from or on behalf of the recipient of the PHI in exchange for the PHI. A sale does not include disclosure for:
1. Public health purposes;
 2. Research purposes where the only remuneration received by the Rutgers Covered Entity or its Business Associate is a reasonable cost-based fee to cover the cost to prepare and transmit the PHI;
 3. Treatment and payment purpose;
 4. The sale, transfer, merger or consolidation of all or part of the Rutgers Covered Entity related due diligence;
 5. Activities undertaken on behalf of the Rutgers Covered Entity and the only remuneration provided is by the Rutgers Covered Entity to its Business Associate; or
 6. Any other reason whereby the remuneration received by the Rutgers Covered Entity or its Business Associate is a reasonable, cost-based fee to cover the cost to prepare and transmit PHI or a fee expressly permitted under other law.

D. Research Activities

The Rutgers Covered Entity is permitted to use and disclose Protected Health Information for research with individual authorization, or without individual authorization under limited circumstances. To use or disclose PHI without research participant authorization, a covered entity must obtain one of the following:

1. Documentation that an alteration or waiver of research participants' authorization for use/disclosure of their information for research purposes has been approved by an IRB or Privacy Board.
2. Representation from the researcher, either in writing or orally, that the use or disclosure of the PHI is solely to prepare a research protocol or similar purposes preparatory to research. Representation will include researcher acknowledgement that PHI will not be removed from the Rutgers Covered Entity and the PHI is for research purposes.
3. A data use agreement exists.

See EXHIBIT B under "Research" for requirements and specifications under which an authorization would not be required.

E. Opportunity to Agree or Object

In the following three (3) circumstances, PHI may be disclosed without an authorization as long as the patient is given an opportunity to agree or object. Units must establish a process to document that opportunity was afforded and if the individual objected.

1. Facility Directories

- a. During registration process in units that utilize facility directories, all patients must be told that the information about them will be placed in the facility directory to provide information to friends, family, clergy and the press if requested and that they may object or request restrictions.
 - b. The information that may be included in the directory is as follows:
 - i. the patient's name;
 - ii. the patient's location;
 - iii. the patient's condition, as undetermined, good, fair, serious or critical; and
 - iv. the patient's religious affiliation.
 - c. Specific medical information about the individual may not be included.
 - d. Patients may agree or object orally or in writing. Each Rutgers Covered Component, however, should document the notification and response on a log sheet or in some other manner so as to be able to ascertain the patient's previous preference in a future visit where an opportunity to object may not practicably be provided.
 - e. In emergency situations involving patient incapacity, where the opportunity to object cannot practicably be provided, the patient's most recent preference, if known, will be honored upon a determination by the attending physician or house supervisor that the disclosure is in the best interest of the patient.
 - f. No directory information will be disclosed unless asked by name, except to members of the clergy.
2. To Persons involved in a Patient's Care or Payment
- a. PHI may be disclosed to a family member, a personal representative of the individual or another person when:
 - i. That information is relevant to such person's involvement with the individual's care or payment related to such care, or
 - ii. To notify (or assist in the notification of) such persons of the individual's location, general condition or death, and
 - iii. When section VI.E.2.b. and section VI.E.2.c. are complied with.
 - b. If the individual is present and has the capacity to make healthcare decisions, the unit may use or disclose the PHI only if it:
 - i. Obtains the individual's agreement;
 - ii. Provides the individual the opportunity to object and the individual does not object; or
 - iii. Can reasonably infer from the circumstances, using professional judgment that the individual does not object to the disclosure.
 - c. If the individual is not present, due to an incapacity or emergency circumstance, the unit may disclose only if:
 - i. The PHI is directly relevant to the person's involvement with the individual's health care, and it is in the individual's best interest.

- ii. Units may use professional judgment and experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences regarding the individual's best interest in allowing a person to act on behalf of the individual to "pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, X-rays, or other similar forms of PHI."

3. Disaster Relief Efforts

PHI may be used or disclosed to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts. The above rules for use and disclosure of PHI for involvement in an individual's care and notification (depending upon whether the individual is present or not) apply as long as they do not interfere with the public or private entity's ability to respond to a disaster relief situation.

VI. Authorizations

- A. Units may use and disclose PHI when a valid authorization is obtained.
- B. A model Authorization for Release of Information is available for use by all units and can be accessed at the following website:
http://erm.rutgers.edu/departments/privacy_forms.html. Any changes or variations to the authorization form must be approved by the Director of Privacy. Treatment may not be conditioned on obtaining the authorization (unless related to an approved research clinical trial).
- C. If the authorization was received from the individual or a third party, the validity of the authorization must be determined. The following elements must be present:
 1. A description of the specific information to be used or disclosed.
 2. Name of the specific person or entity authorized to disclose the information.
 3. Name of the specific person or entity to whom the Rutgers Covered Entity may make the requested use or disclosure and, if information is to be mailed, the address of the person or entity.
 4. The date, event or condition upon which the authorization will expire.
 5. The individual's signature and date.
 6. A description of the personal legal representative's authority to sign, if applicable.
 7. A description of the purpose of the disclosure. (Not required if the individual requests disclosure for own use).
 8. A statement in which the individual acknowledges that he or she has the right to revoke the authorization, instructions on how to exercise such right or to the extent the information is included in the Covered Entity's notice, a reference to the notice.
 9. A statement that treatment may not be conditioned on obtaining the authorization, unless it is research related and disclosure of the information is for the particular research study. If for purposes of research, where treatment may be conditioned on obtaining the authorization, a statement about the consequences of refusing to sign the authorization.
 10. A statement in which the individual acknowledges that information used or disclosed to any entity other than a health plan or health care provider may no longer be protected by federal privacy law.

11. If the authorization is for marketing purposes and the marketing is expected to result in direct or indirect remuneration to any component of the Rutgers Covered Entity from a third party, a statement of this fact.
12. If the disclosure requested involves mental health information, the authorization must also include the following:
 - a. The specific purposes for which the information may be used, both at the time of disclosure and any time in the future; and
 - b. That the patient is aware of the statutory privilege accorded to confidential communications between a patient and a licensed psychologist and psychiatrist.

VII. Defective Authorizations

An "authorization" is not considered valid if it has any of the following defects:

- A. The expiration date has passed.
- B. The form has not been filled out completely.
- C. The authorization is known by a member of the Workforce to have been revoked.
- D. The form lacks any required element.
- E. The information on the form is known by the Rutgers Covered Entity to be false.
- F. Treatment was conditioned upon obtaining the authorization (except for research purposes).

VIII. Legal Representatives

If the authorization is signed by a legal representative or other person authorized to act for the individual, the request must be accompanied by documentation of the representative's legal authority to act on behalf of the individual.

IX. Revocation of Authorization

- A. A patient who has executed an authorization for disclosure or use of individual health information may revoke the authorization at any time by sending a written notice to the Rutgers Covered Component as described in the Rutgers Covered Entity's Notice of Privacy Practices.
- B. The written notice must refer to the specific authorization being revoked (e.g., "my authorization of January 27, 2002") and be signed and dated by the individual or his or her legal representative.
- C. The revocation becomes effective upon receipt by Rutgers Covered Components with the exception of uses or disclosures made by Rutgers Covered Components prior to receipt.

X. For Research-Related Health Information

- A. The core elements of an authorization as described below may be combined with the informed consent to participate in the research.
- B. Rutgers Covered Entity may condition the provision of research related treatment (related to the clinical research/trial) on obtaining authorization.

- C. Rutgers Covered Entity may use and disclose for a specific research study, PHI that is created or received before and after HIPAA's compliance date (April 14, 2003), and/or prior to the new authorizations being implemented, as long as some other express legal permission to use and disclose the information for the research study was obtained.
 - D. Archived information may continue to be used and disclosed for the research study if an individual originally signed an informed consent to participate in the research study, or IRB waived informed consent, in accordance with the Common Rule or FDA's human subject protection regulations.
 - E. An accounting of all disclosures made under an authorization must be documented and maintained. See Rutgers policy: Accounting of Disclosures of Protected Health Information.
- XI. Rutgers Covered Component may rely on the exercise of professional judgment as to disclosures pursuant to facility directories, to persons involved in a patient's care or payment and notification, and in relation to disaster relief as discussed in section VI.D.2.b. and section VI.D.2.c. and as to disclosures regarding serious threats to health and safety as discussed in EXHIBIT C.
