6. The Policy

50.1.1 AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

   University Regulations and Policies, adopted by the Board of Governors and contained herein in Sections 10 through 90, are generally formulated by the Board of Governors to control and coordinate the activities of the administrative units and schools, institutes, centers, and other educational groups within the University. Certain administratively promulgated rules also are included in these regulations when warranted. No policy, rule or regulation shall be so construed as to infringe in any way upon the powers and authority of the Board of Governors.
