60.9.17 VISITATION

1. To maintain a safe working environment, comply with risk management practices and minimize disruptions of work, the University discourages staff members and volunteers from having nonemployee visitors on University premises (e.g. children, family members or friends) unless prior permission has been granted by the supervisor or department head.

2. Visitations shall not disrupt the work of the staff member nor any other staff, faculty, or student, or disturb University activities and functions. Visitors shall not engage in disruptive behavior.
3. If permission is granted, it shall be based on the above conditions.
4. Failure to comply with this policy shall result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
