6. The Policy

60.1.26 RECREATIONAL PRIVILEGES

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

- A. All recreational facilities shall be available for use to all employees employed within Rutgers positions (non-legacy UMDNJ positions). Employees employed within Rutgers-legacy UMDNJ staff, faculty positions, and legacy UMDNJ retirees will need to purchase a membership to access campus specific recreational facilities; the memberships shall be posted on the appropriate campus recreational facilities website.
- B. Camden Campus – Recreational and athletic facilities on the Camden Campus include the recreation center, gymnasium, squash/racquet ball courts, weight room, aquatic center, soccer field, and softball field and are available for use, but are subject to the scheduling requirements of the facility. More information about the facilities and hours of operation can be found on the main Athletic and Recreation website, <http://athletics.camden.rutgers.edu>. The Camden Campus offers a variety of recreational programs and non-credit classes to the Rutgers–Camden community. Information and registration forms may be obtained from the Athletics and Recreation department or by visiting <http://recreation.camden.rutgers.edu/>. Inquiries concerning participation in any of the recreational programs should be directed to 856-225-6197.
- C. Newark Campus – The Newark Campus offers a variety of recreational programs for the Rutgers–Newark community. For additional information visit <http://www.rutgersnewarkathletics.com/sports/2007/12/13/rec.aspx>.
- D. New Brunswick Campus – Recreational facilities on all New Brunswick campuses, including the Busch Tennis Bubble, College Avenue Gym, Cook/Douglass Recreation Center, Deiner Park, Easton Avenue Fitness Center, Livingston Gym, Loree Gym, Rockoff Hall Tech Gym & Spa, University Park, Sports Club Field, Class of '57 Pavilion, and Werblin Recreational Center, are available for use, but are subject to the scheduling requirements of the facility. Inquiries concerning participation in any of the recreational programs on the New Brunswick Campus should be directed to Rutgers Recreation. For additional information, visit <http://www.recreation.rutgers.edu/>.

RUTGERS GOLF COURSE

The university maintains an 18-hole golf course on the Busch Campus. The Rutgers University Golf Course is open to the general public but play is subject to the scheduling requirements of the course. Reduced green fees are available for all full-time Rutgers (including legacy UMDNJ) faculty, staff, and students. Details on tee time reservations, hours of operation, rates, and other information may be obtained by contacting the Pro Shop or visiting the website at <http://golfcourse.rutgers.edu/>.
